

Military kills second most wanted criminal in Benue

May 9, 2020 in News, News Update

0

Uja Emmanuel, Makurdi

Men of Operation Whirl Stroke (OPWS) have killed the second most wanted criminal gang leader, Terungwa Igbagwa, popularly called Orjondo in Zakibiam Town , headquarters of Ukum Local Government Area of Benue State .

Orjondo, reportedly formed his own gang after he fell out with another notorious gang leader operating in Ukum, Logo and Katsina Ala axis

He held sway in criminal activities along Katsina Ala – Zakibiam road .□□Orjondo, it was learnt, made life miserable for poor farmers as he kidnapped and killed them at will.□□Igbo traders in Zakibiam were his worst victims as he killed many of them after collecting huge money as ransom after kidnapping their relatives .

The Nation gathered that the soldiers traced him to his hideout, opened fire on him and killed him on the spot. close

There was jubilation in Zakibiam , the famous yam town as traders took to streets and celebrated his killing .

The Nation gathered that assorted arms and ammunition were recovered from him.

Previous Post

 Ogun PDP gets new executive

Next Post

 Pastor defiles five minors in Edo

Discussion about this post