RESIDENTS of Karmo, a suburb of the Federal Capital ^{close} Territory (FCT), Abuja, have protested the killing of 52-year-old Solomon Eze by a policeman on Sunday.

Eze was shot when policemen went to the community to arrest a robbery suspect.

The Nation learnt that Eze was shot in the confusion that ensued as residents tried to stop the policemen from taking the suspect away. It was gathered that the suspect escaped in the melee.

“We are angry,” said one resident. “How can someone who did nothing wrong be brought down like that?”

Police said their man who killed Eze had been arrested and detained.
