POLICE in Plateau State have confirmed the killing of Dr Nandi Drenkat, a lecturer with the University of Jos, by gunmen.

Commissioner of police Edward Egbuka confirmed the incident at a news briefing on Sunday in Jos, the state capital.

Gunmen stormed the residence of the deceased in the early hours of Saturday, shot him and kidnapped his six-year-old daughter.

Egbuka said the police mobilised to the scene and closed the criminals in a gun duel and arrested one of them.

He also confirmed that the kidnapped daughter of the deceased was also rescued from the abductors.

He said that the manhunt for other fleeing members of the gang continued, promising that the command would not rest on its oars until they are arrested.
