

Two held for 'killing' three persons in Oyo

June 2, 2020 in City Beats, News Update

0

Agency Reporter

The police command in Oyo State has confirmed the arrest of two men in connection with the murder of three persons in some communities in Akinyele Local Government Area of the state.

The News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) reports that unknown gunmen invaded Ikereku, Pade and Olanla Villages in Akinyele LGA, on Sunday and killed three persons.

The Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), in the state, SP Olugbenga Fadeyi, who confirmed the incident in Ibadan on Monday, said that eight gunmen invaded the communities on Sunday.

“The police operatives immediately swung into action when they got the information.

Read Also: Policemen killing colleagues out of frustration, says CP

“We combed the bushes in the areas and two persons were arrested in connection with the incident.

“The police tactical team and other operatives have been deployed to arrest others who participated in the act,” Fadeyi said.

The PPRO assured the communities and good people of the state of adequate security; and urged them to provide timely and adequate information that would lead to the arrest of the perpetrators of the unlawful act.

NAN reports that a resident of the village gave the names of those killed during the raid as Ope Babalola, Waheed Ganiyu and Yemi Osunolale.

---

Previous Post

 Budget deficit hits N4.5tr, says DMO DG

Next Post

 Businesses booming during COVID-19 crisis

---

Discussion about this post