

Fleeing robber kills colleague

June 26, 2020 in City Beats, News Update

 0

From Osagie Otabor, Akure

An armed robbery suspect has been shot dead by his colleague while they were fleeing a robbery scene.

The incident happened in the Okitipupa area of Ondo State.

Witnesses said the robbers had robbed a Point of Sales operator and attempted to run away when the victim raised the alarm.

Read Also: Robbers attack judge's home in Lagos

Residents gave chase and in an attempt to scare off the mob, one of the hoodlums fired shots into the air but mistakenly hit his colleague in the head.

The witnesses said policemen from the Okitipupa Police Division recovered two guns and a bag snatched from the POS operator from the dead robber.

The other robbers were caught, The Nation gathered.

How Local Abuja woman Got Totally Natural Cure for Type 2 Diabetes, Lower Blood Sugar and Repair Pancreas without Insulin Injections. Click Here!!
