

Mob sets suspected hoodlums ablaze in Yola

June 26, 2020 in City Beats, News Update

 0

Adamawa Nigeria Map grey

From Onimisi Alao, Yola

A suspected hoodlum has died while three others were hospitalised after they were set ablaze by an angry crowd in the Adamawa State capital, Yola.

Read Also: Police arrests nine suspected 'hoodlums' in Lagos

The four suspects, called Shila Boys in the state, were said to have been caught stealing near Jimeta Modern Market, about 7pm on Wednesday.

Jungle justice against Shila Boys is becoming common in Yola. Last month, three suspected Shila Boys were lynched. Police confirmed the incident.

