

In Rivers, suspected cultists killed a community chief and three other residents in Luebe, Khana Local Government Area of the state.

It was gathered that the bandits also attacked another local leader in a nearby community on Tuesday.

Police said they were yet to be briefed about the incident.

In Cross River, the Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) arrested five cult suspects.

Parading them yesterday in Calabar, Mr Danjuma Elisha, State Commandant of NSCDC, told NAN that the suspects were arrested on Tuesday in Ogoja council area.
