

Two dead as okada veers into BRT lane

October 1, 2020 in City Beats, News Update

0

By Adeyinka Aderibigbe

Two persons were on Wednesday confirmed dead in Lagos as a commercial motorcyclist carrying two passengers ran into a bus in the restricted BRT lane.

A third person was reported injured and taken to hospital.

Operators of the BRT franchise, Primero Transport Services, confirmed the incident, saying the crash happened in the Ile-Epo area of Abule Egba on the Lagos mainland.

Read Also: Three feared dead as security men raid Rivers towns

Primero's corporate affairs manager Mutiu Yekeen said the incident occurred about 4am when the BRT bus was going to pick up early morning commuters.

The bus was heading to Abule-Egba from Oshodi, Yekeen said.

On Tuesday an okada rider broke a leg when he ran into a BRT lane, hitting a bus in the Ikeja area of the state.