

Police confirmed two deaths

The Osun State Police Command confirmed that two persons died after the attack on Governor Oyetola's convoy on Saturday.

"The protesters, infiltrated by hoodlums armed with dangerous weapons such as stones, clubs, cutlasses, guns, etc, attacked the Governor, entourage and vehicular convoy. The police escort attached to the Governor rescued the Governor back to Government House at Oke-fia without harm," spokesperson of the command, Mrs Yemisi Opalola said in a statement last night.

"Information at the disposal of the command indicates that two persons are reported to have died in the pandemonium."

The Commissioner of Police urged members of the public to remain calm and law-abiding as efforts were ongoing to restore normalcy.
