Men of the Oyo State Police Command have recovered the bodies of a soldier and a civilian from a forest in Ibadan while searching for a foreigner kidnapped on December 12.

Police spokesman Olugbenga Fadeyi said on Monday that an Army Lieutenant and an officer of the Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) were also injured during the exchange of gunfire between the kidnappers and security operatives.

According to him, Hassan Mills of Panorama Farm, Mekun, Oke Alaro area of Ibadan, was abducted at the entrance of his farm by gunmen.

He added that the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) in Oke Alaro and his men combed the forest to rescue the victim.

A team of Operation Burst, which was invited by the company, arrived at the area and proceeded to the forest. An Army Lieutenant sustained gunshot injury on his right lap and was taken to the hospital.
