A young man, simply identified as Eguono, was reportedly knocked down by a hit-and-run driver on Sunday night, near Airport junction, in Uvwie Local Government of Delta State.

The Nation learnt that the accident occurred about 11:45pm near Forte Filling Station.

The deceased, said to be in his late 30s, usually played football in the area and was known to do different things to earn a living.

An unidentified person was said to have been hit also, in the accident, but managed to get up from the scene to seek aid.
