

A 23-year-old expectant housewife, Mariam Musa, has been paraded for allegedly poisoning her stepson.

Mariam, the first wife, said: "I poisoned my stepson because my husband showed love to my mate, (the second wife), as she had a male child. My husband does not give me attention since I can't give birth to a male child. I am four-month pregnant. Jealousy made me kill the three-year-old boy."
