One person was on Monday killed while four passengers sustained injuries in a lone accident along Ife/Ibadan expressway.

The accident was said to have occurred about 9:20am on Monday when a Navy blue Toyota Sienna with plate number WWD 172 AA travelling toward Ibadan lost control and veered off the road, ramming into the bush.

An eyewitness along the scene of the accident said, "There are several passengers in the vehicle. Definitely overseeing caused the accident. The Sienna veered off the road and ran into the bush colliding with a tree. Passengers were injured as I saw officials of Federal Road Safety Corps at the scene trying to rescue the victims.”

Speaking to The Nation, The spokesperson of the Federal Road Safety Corps, Osun Command, Mrs. Agnes Ogungbemi, confirmed that one person was killed in the accident while 4 others sustained injury.

She said, “11 passengers were inside the Sienna bus when the accident occurred as a result of speed limit violation. One male passenger died while two female, one male and a female child were injured. Six other passengers escaped.
