The identity of the deceased woman could not be ascertained at press time, nor could the community where she hailed from.

When contacted, police spokesperson DSP Edafe Bright confirmed the incident on the telephone to The Nation.

He said, "It is confirmed. The police are doing their best to see if those people (suspects) can be arrested.

"The body of a lady was found with her head chopped off and her blood drained. They (suspects) went with her head and the blood".
