

In another incident, one Lazarus Josiah, aged 29, was arrested for allegedly hacking his 58-year-old mother, Mrs. Chain Bishop, to death at Odioma in Brass Local Government Area of the state.

The suspect, who confessed to the crime, said he suspected his mother to be a witch, claiming that her mother was responsible for his retrogression and lack of progress in life.

He confessed: "I used my bare hands to kill her because she wanted me to stay with her forever and I was not making any progress."
