

Three students, five others die in Oyo, Kano, Anambra accidents

EIGHT persons have died in road accidents in Oyo, Kano and Anambra states.

Three of the dead, all secondary school students in the Erunmu area of Ibadan, the Oyo State capital, were passengers on a motorcycle when the crash occurred yesterday.

The bike man also died.

The Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC) confirmed the incident yesterday.

Sector commander, Mrs Uche Chukwurah said a truck

From Segun Showunmi, Segun Showunmi, Ibadan, and Emma Elekwa, Onitsha

rammed into the motorcycle, which was conveying five persons. Another passenger, a female, sustained injuries.

In Kano, the FRSC also confirmed the death of two persons in a crash. Five others were injured in the incident.

Two persons equally died while two others were injured in a ghastly crash on Obiuno Road in Ekwulobia, Aguata Local Government Area of Anambra State.

The incident, which happened on Sunday, involved a Lexus ES350 car.

The FRSC blamed the crash on speeding.

Confirming the incident, Sector Commander, Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Andrew Kumapayi said the body of the deceased had been deposited at the mortuary.

He enjoined drivers to desist from speeding but apply the recommended speed limit of 50km/hrs in built up areas.

He said, "An unidentified driver of a Lexus ES350 car with registration number KSF 403 GD was involved in the fatal crash.

"A total of four persons were involved in the crash comprising two male adults and two female adults

"Two persons, one male and one female adult sustained varying degrees of injuries and were taken to Apex hospital Igboukwu, while two persons were confirmed dead by the doctor on duty.

18-year-old suspected hacker arrested in Ondo