

Gunmen kill another seven in Benue

On the same Thursday night, gunmen killed seven other persons on the Makurdi-Naka-Ankpa in Benue State.

Fifteen others were wounded and scores stranded on the highway.

The victims were said to be travellers who were attacked in their private cars or commercial vehicles at Kula village, about seven kilometres from Makurdi.

Time was about 5.30pm.

Soldiers were later drafted to the scene to clear the road for commuters.

The Police Public Relation Officer (PPRO) Kate Anene, a deputy superintendent of police (DSP), confirmed the attack yesterday, saying that investigation was in progress to fish out the perpetrators.

Suspected herdsmen have carried out more than 40 attacks, killing over 40 persons on the Makurdi-Naka Road over the last two months.
