

Bandits early on Tuesday attacked communities in Jema'a, Birnin-Gwari and Giwa council areas of Kaduna State, killing six persons.

Commissioner for Internal Security and Home Affairs Samuel Aruwan also said in statement that that a 90-year-old woman committed suicide.

He quoted security agencies as saying that bandits invaded Goska community in Jema'a council where they killed four residents, adding that two persons were also killed in Birnin Gwari and Giwa councils by bandits.