

Three women die in Ondo building collapse

3

THREE woman who are fish sellers at the popular Oja Oba market have died after a dilapidated building collapsed on them in the Arakale area of Akure.

The women were said to be hiding from a task force of the

From Osagie Otabor, Akure

Fish Sellers Association of Nigeria.

It was gathered that some workers hired to pull down the building were on the site working when it crashed on the women.