

Herdsmen kill eight in Benue

From Uja Emmanuel,
Makurdi

Samuel Ortom repealed the open grazing prohibition and ranching establishment law in the state.

Three bodies have been recovered by security forces who were accompanied by youths from the area.

Police spokesperson Sewuese Anene said she could not confirm the attack, but promised to provide details later.

SUSPECTED herdsmen have killed two aid workers and six others working for 360HSCD, a non-governmental organisation focused on HIV/AIDS testing and counseling in Benue State.

The workers were said to be on routine supervision of their charges at Tomanyiin in Guma council of the state when they were abducted at the weekend.

Local sources reportedly called the telephone lines of the aid workers upon learning of their abduction, and the abductors who answered the call, confirmed the killings, insisting that there would be more killings until Governor

ACP 1 1

1 - after shooting spree in Aba