

Police probe death of 36-year-old in Ebonyi

NHE Ebonyi State Police Command is investigating the death of one Kelechi Amos Irem, 36, of Ezi Ndi Ogudu, Ogwuma Edda in Afikpo South Local Government Area of Ebonyi State.

The family of the deceased had, in a petition signed by the

From Ogochukwu Anioke, Abakaliki

elder brother and stepmother of the deceased, Monday Amos Irem and Mrs Felicia Ama Nkama, indicting several people as masterminds of the incident.

"We humbly wish to report a case of the murder of our dear son, the late Mr Kelechi Amos Irem, aged 36 years, of Ezi Ndi Ogudu, Ogwuma Edda in Afikpo South Local Government Area of Ebonyi State. This murder of Kelechi happened at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 31, 2021, in our family compound," they said in the petition.

The Chief Security Officer and Chairman of Afikpo South Local Government Area of the State, Dr. Eni Uduma Chima debunked the claim by the deceased's family that their late son was murdered by someone or a group of people from the Edda Community.

Police arrest gun-runner, suspected robbers in Abuia