

Cult group kills teenager in Osogbo

From Toba Adededeji, Osogbo

S ere was confusion in the Olugona area of Osogbo, capital of Osun State as a group of suspected cultists hacked a 17-year-old boy named Olalekan Quadri to death.

The Nation gathered that fear gripped the resident as the group of cultists chased Quadri to the scene and attacked him with machetes on Monday night.

It was learnt that the cultists led by one Afeez popularly known as 'Terror' were responsible for the killing of the teenager.

A resident of the area named Julius said, "Terror is one of the leaders of Eiye confraternity and has been terrorising this area for some time now. He led his members in the killing of the boy in our area and hurriedly left the scene."