

Gunmen kill seven policemen in Zamfara

S SEVEN policemen were ambushed and killed on Monday evening by bandits along Tofa - Magami Road, Gusau in Zamfara State.

A top police source told The Nation yesterday that the burnt body of one of the policemen was packed in a sack by the bandits.

The source spoke just as the Inspector-General of Police Alkali Usman yesterday expressed worry over incessant police fatality.

Another source said that a patrol van used by the policemen in Gusau was also set ablaze by the bandits.

"The bandits were in large

From Sani Muhammad Sani, Gusau

number. They engaged the Police operatives in a gun battle and as a result, seven of them were killed on the spot. The van used by the policemen was also burnt," the source added.

He said that the remains of the policemen were taken to the mortuary of Yarima Bakura Specialist Hospital in Gusau, the state capital.

Continued on Page 5

ADVERT HOTLINES

08111813080

08023366898