

Lady stabs hotel guest to death in Ogun

A 32-YEAR-OLD female fashion designer, Ms Omowumi Oyapitan has been arrested by the police for stabbing a 30-year-old Mohammed Ahmed to death inside a hotel identified as Splendour Guest Inn.

The suspect was arrested by detectives from Onipanu Divisional Police Headquarters on Wednesday shortly after she killed Ahmed.

Although, the detectives dispatched by the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) for Onipanu Division Bamidele Job to the scene met the victim in a pool of his blood and rescued him to state hospital. Ota where a doctor confirmed him dead.

From Ernest Nwokolo, Abeokuta

One Stephen Udo, the Managing Director of Splendour Guest Inn who alerted the police to the killing, reported that an argument ensued between two of his guests in the hotel, and in the process, one of them, Omowumi Oyapitan broke a bottle and stabbed the other, Muhammed Ahmed in the neck with it.

Police Public Relations Officer for Ogun State Police Command, Abimbola Oyeyemi, disclosed this to reporters yesterday, stating that investigation revealed that the victim lodged in the hotel since Monday, December 27, 2021, and was hiding there after stealing the sum of N600, 000 belonging to his boss at Hayorlak Hotel where he was working as a bar attendant.

Oyeyemi, a Deputy Superintendent of Police (DSP) further stated that the victim used part of the stolen money to lodge some of his friends in the hotel and later had an altercation with one of them for allegedly stealing part of the N600, 000.

• The suspect