

Father, daughter arrested with fresh human parts in Osun

From Toba Adedeji, Osogbo

THE operatives of Osun Western Nigerian Security Network codenamed, Amotekun have arrested a 35-year-old father, Ganiyu Wasiu and her 21-year-old daughter, Muizzat Wasiu with fresh human parts.

The Nation gathered that the suspects were arrested at the Oke-Fia area of Igege Town in Olaoluwa Local Government Area when they were conveying the mutilated human parts in a Ghana-Must-Go bag.

However, Ganiyu who was prevented from being lynched by an angry mob claimed that he was set up by her daughter's husband.

When the Field Commandant of Amotekun, Comrade Amitolu Shittu, was contacted, he disclosed that his men made more arrests aside from the two initial suspects.

He said: "Seven more suspects were arrested in Iwo town in connection with the fresh human parts. The identity of the corpse is yet to be known. We arrested Lawal Ibraheem (25), Adiatu Rufus (19), Fatola Niyi (45), Eniola Akeem (42), Chief Amusan (64), Alaba Oyeniran (31) and Oyekola Ibraheem(20)."

Amitolu noted that all the suspects have been handed over to the Department of State Service (DSS) for further investigation.
