

Police begin manhunt for Sergeant's killers

MEN of the Ondo State Police Command have begun manhunt for the gunmen who killed a police Sergeant around Oke Maria axis in Oka-Akoko South West Local Government Area of Ondo State.

The deceased whose identity is yet to be ascertained was on duty when the gunmen attacked and shot him dead.

His service rifle was taken away while his colleagues scampered for safety.

From Osagie Otabor,
Akure

Sources said homicide detectives drew from the State Criminal Investigation and Intelligence Department, SCIID, in Akure have been dispatched to the area to arrest the fleeing gunmen.

Ondo Police spokesman, DSP Olufunmilayo Odunlami confirmed the incident and said the investigation has commenced.