

Kwara youths protest Okada rider's death

S CORES of youths yesterday protested at Oke-Onigbin, in Isin Local Government of Kwara State over the death of an Okada rider.

The deceased, Isah Bayo, was said to have been killed by unknown persons at Owode in Ifelodun Local Government on

From Adekunle Jimoh, Ilorin
Monday night

The youth were said to have burnt tyres and blocked Oke-Onigbin/Ijara junction.

Police spokesperson Ajayi Okasanmi said the command had sent operatives to the area.

Okasanmi said: "On receipt of the information, the Commissioner of Police, Tuesday Assayomo, dispatched teams of policemen to the scene for possible arrest of the culprits for prosecution. However, investigation into the matter is on.

"With the intervention of the chairman of the local government and the police, calm was fully restored."