Gunmen have killed three persons in Isuofia community, Aguata local government area of Anambra State.

Isuofia is the community of the Anambra State governor-elect and former governor of Central Bank of Nigeria CBN, Prof Charles Soludo

It was gathered that the gunmen invaded a petrol station where they killed the three persons.

During the electioneering campaigns in 2021, gunmen also visited the community where they killed Soludo's security guards and abducted a commissioner.

When contacted, police spokesman, Ikenga Tochukwu, said he was not aware of the incident

But a senior officer, who pleaded anonymity, confirmed the incident to The Nation.

The source said, “Those people have started again in the state and everyone knows those responsible for it but they are afraid to mention them.

“We will do our best and leave the rest to God. They should retrace their footsteps or face the wrath of security operatives.”
