

Bamise: Hunt for other culprits on

• Man beats wife to death

By Precious Igbonwelundu

le Ajisebutu made the clarification during a press briefing held at the Command Headquarters yesterday.

Ajisebutu hinted that there were accomplices to the murder, saying that detectives would do everything to apprehend and bring them to justice.

Ajisebutu confirmed reports that a Master of Ceremonies (MC), Emmanuel Chigozie allegedly beat his expectant wife to death, adding that a manhunt for the fleeing suspect had commenced.

The beating reportedly increased in their four years of marriage after the woman loaned him N2.7m and started requesting for a refund.

Ajisebutu said the woman was rushed to hospital where she and her unborn baby died.

THE Lagos State Police Command has said investigation in the abduction and murder of 22-year-old fashion designer, Oluwabamise Ayanwale, was continuing notwithstanding the arraignment of the prime suspect, Andrew Nice Omininikoron.

Police spokesman Adekun-

Five communities protest land encroachment by A...