

Hoodlums kill lecturer, another in Plateau

By Kolade Adeyemi, Jos    On Apr 13, 2022

A university lecturer and an artisan have been killed in Yankwaba area of Jos North council of Plateau State.

The lecturer, Sani Muhammad Mazadu, of the Department of Psychology, Federal University, Gashua, Yobe State, and a tailor, Safiyanu Sa'id, were killed on Monday during a clash between rival groups popularly known as Sara Suka.

A relative of the lecturer, Jamilu Abdullahi Mazadu, confirmed the incident yesterday in Jos, the state capital.

He said the incident was reported at the Anguwan Rogo Police Divisional Headquarters.

Mazadu said, "The deceased was about to complete his PhD studies before he was killed. The death of Sani has shocked everyone of us but we believe that Almighty Allah has permitted that he would no longer be with us. He and the other victim were buried this (yesterday) morning. We pray Allah forgive them. He was a very jovial