① We killed three policemen in Kogi, says ISWAP

THE Islamic State in West Africa Province (ISWAP) has claimed responsibility for an attack on a police station in Kogi State.

Gunmen attacked the police station in Adavi council of the state early Saturday, killing three policemen.

Commissioner of Police Edward Egbuka described the incident as a "surprise attack".

According to Voice of America, ISWAP in a statement shared on Telegram, said "soldiers of the caliphate attacked a police station".

② The group added that five people were killed in the raid.

ISWAP had also claimed responsibility for an explosion that killed six people in a market in Taraba on Tuesday.

If the attacks were executed by the insurgents as claimed, it, therefore, indicates the expansion of the terror group in the northern part of the country.
