

A trending video seen by this reporter showed that the owner of the joint was a woman.

In the past one month now, the target of the gunmen had been beer parlours and local government headquarters in Anambra State

Recently, they invaded the Nnewi South Local Government Headquarters in Ukpok and set some buildings and offices ablaze, killing a security man on duty.

Also, on Easter day, they attacked a beer parlour and a fast food joint close to the Federal Polytechnic, Oko, in the Orumba South Local Government Area of Anambra State .

The Nation gathered that the incident at the military post happened around 3.30pm Saturday