

Police hunt killers of Bayelsa motorcyclist

By Simon Utebor, Yenagoa On May 31, 2022

Machete-wielding hoodlums yesterday attacked a commercial motorcyclist in the Emeyal 2 area of Ogbia council of Bayelsa State.

The bike man, Goodnews Okrinya, popularly known as J-Martin, sustained deep cuts in the neck and died immediately.

The hoodlums were said to have dumped his body at Bakery area of Imiringi community.

The assailants took away his motorcycle.

Read Also: Police bust ‘Yahoo Yahoo’ training center in Bauchi, arrest five

Chairman of Ogbia council Dr. Ebinyo Marvin Turner, in a statement yesterday, described the killing as senseless, barbaric, unacceptable and unbecoming.

He called on the security agencies to apprehend the killers.

Ogbia “will not and cannot be a den of criminals,” he said.

Commissioner of Police Ben Nebolisa Okolo urged his men to fish out Okrinya's killers.