Two tea sellers, a driver and a roadside trader have been shot dead in Ondo State by gunmen operating on motorcycles.

The incident occurred in the Sabo and Igba areas of Ondo town.

A source blamed the attacks on cultists, but another said the identities of the assailants could not be ascertained.

The gunmen killed three persons in Sabo and one in Igba.

It was learnt that the driver had stopped to eat in the area when he was shot dead.

A police source confirmed the killings.
