

Teen raped to death in Imo community

By Our Reporter On Jun 14, 2022

Youths of Umuezeala Nsu community in Ehime Mbano council of Imo State yesterday went on rampage following the death of one Amarachi Iwunze.

Amarachi, 18, was allegedly found dead on Sunday in the house of one Ifeanyi Osuji.

Osuji, a suspected internet fraudster and ritualist, has fled, The Nation learnt.

Read Also: IPOB raises the alarm over search for arms in Imo communities

A source said Amarachi was raped to death.

The Nation learnt that news of the young woman's death broke yesterday after the mother of the suspect opened his room door and found the body of the teenager on the bed.

"She raised the alarm," the source said, adding, "When Ifeanyi Osuji found out that people were now aware of his ugly act, he took to his heels. He is a wanted man."

The incident, the source said, angered the youths of the community who destroyed the suspect's house.

Police spokesman Michael Abattam confirmed the incident, saying efforts were being made "to arrest the fleeing suspect".