The spokesman of Ogun State Traffic Compliance and Endorsement Corps (TRACE), Babatunde Akinbiyi, who confirmed the accident, said it occurred around 5.22pm.

Akinbiyi said the injured and the remains of the dead were evacuated to the state hospital in Ijaiye, Abeokuta.

He said, “A survivor said the driver of the bus was speeding and was cautioned by some of the passengers before one of the rear tyres burst and the bus somersaulted, falling on its side.

“Investigation confirmed that the bus was coming from Redeemed Camp and passengers were among the congregants who partook of the just-concluded 70th Convention tagged Perfect
