

Osun night guard kills mechanic returning from birthday party

By Toba Adedeji, Osogbo On Sep 11, 2022

A 40-year-old mechanic and father of three, Badmus Mohamed was allegedly shot dead by his estate's night guard while returning from a birthday party in Osun State.

The Nation gathered that Badmus had hang-out at a bar with his friends for a birthday celebration wherein he spent the evening on Friday before returning to his house in Okini, Egbedore Local Government Area of Osun State.

One of his friends, who pleaded not to be named told The Nation that, "Badmus is a mechanic and has three children. He was at the birthday celebration with his friends till about 1AM of Saturday before he left for his house. While he arrived his estate area, he was waylaid by a group of night guard. He was questioned and he explained to them that he lives in the neighborhood.

The image contains two promotional banners. The top banner is purple and features the 'Yellow Card' logo in the top left corner. It has the text 'The safest way to buy crypto with Naira from your bank' in white. Below this, there are three green checkmarks with the following text: 'No hassles', 'Quick transfer', and 'Best rates'. At the bottom left of this banner are logos for the App Store and Google Play. On the right side of the banner is a photograph of a smiling man in a yellow shirt holding a smartphone. The bottom banner is teal and features a white Telegram paper plane icon inside a blue circle on the left. To the right of the icon, it says 'Join us on' in white, followed by 'Telegram' in large white letters. Below 'Telegram' is the URL 'https://t.me/thenationnewspaper' in white. In the top right corner of this banner is the 'THE NATION' logo.

"He led them to his house and opened the gate. Little altercation ensued between him and the guards, one of them shot him dead with his dane gun."

Confirming the incident, the Police Public Relations Officer, Yemisi Opalola confirmed the incident.

She explained that, "on September 10th 2022, at about 2AM, the chairman of a community named Ibuowo Estate in Okini reported at Dada Estate Divisional Police Headquarters that their night guard named Moshood Rasaq shot dead one Badmus Mohamed with his dane gun. We have arrested the suspect with his gun.

“The corpse of the deceased has been taken to Osun State University Teaching Hospital, Osogbo morgue for autopsy. The case has been transferred to State Criminal Investigation Department for further investigation.”