

Two die, eight injured in Niger crash

By Our Reporter On Sep 28, 2022

Two persons were killed, eight injured in a road crash on Monday at Malam Tanko village on the Abuja-Kaduna Highway.

Twenty-four other passengers involved in the accident escaped unhurt.

The village is located at Tafa Local Government Area of Niger.

Yellow Card

The safest way to buy crypto with Naira from your bank

- ✓ No hassles
- ✓ Quick transfer
- ✓ Best rates

Download on the App Store | GET IT ON Google Play

A smiling man in a yellow shirt is holding a smartphone.

Join us on Telegram

THE NATION

<https://t.me/thenationnewspaper>

Read Also: Six killed in Niger bus crash

Two commercial buses and an articulated vehicle were involved in the accident.

Sector Commander of the Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC) in Niger, Mr Kumar Tsukwam, told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) in Minna yesterday that the commercial vehicles had 34 passengers on board.

“Corpses of the dead were taken to the morgue at Sabon Wuse General Hospital, Niger, where the injured also received treatment.”