

Terrorist leader, Dogo, 30 others killed in airstrikes

By Okodili Ndidi, Abuja On Oct 11, 2022

Terrorist leader, Ali Dogo aka Yellow and 30 of his fighters have been killed in an airstrike conducted by the Air Component of Operation Whirl Punch.

According to reliable sources, Yellow and his fighters had fled from Niger State to one Alhaji Gwarzo's house at Yadi in Giwa council of Kaduna State for safety following NAF aircraft continued bombardment on his location in Niger State.

Read Also: Six abductees escape as ISWAP terrorists flee

“Unfortunately for Yellow and his fighters, while they were having a meeting, NAF aircraft struck Alhaji Gwarzo’s house, leaving everybody in the building neutralised including Yellow,” the source said, adding, “similar strikes on same day targeted against terrorists at a location Northwest of Mando in Kaduna State were also undertaken. Following credible intelligence of terrorists leaders and their foot soldiers converging under tree covers at the location for a meeting, the location was struck with several terrorists killed.”

Director, Public Relations and Information, Nigerian Air Force, Air Commodore Edward Gabkwet, confirmed the airstrikes.