

Gunmen on rampage in Southeast

GUNMEN went on the rampage in the Southeast at the weekend, leaving a trail of bloodshed in their wake.

The police in Enugu have launched a manhunt for the killers of three policemen who were on stop-and-search duty.

Commissioner of Police, Enugu Command, Ahmed Ammani, yesterday visited the scene of

From Nwanosike Onu, Awka;
Damian Duruiheoma, Enugu;
Chris Njoku, Owerri

Saturday's attack - Agbani Roundabout in Agbani community, Nkanu West.

Also yesterday in Enugu, gunmen suspected to be kidnappers attacked St. Jude's Catholic Church, Eburummiri community, Ibagwa-Aka in Igbo-Eze

South.

They abducted the parish priest, Rev. Victor Ishiwu.

Two suspected members of the Indigenous People of Biafra (IPOB) were killed in a gun duel with security operatives in the state.

In Anambra, gunmen invaded Aguleri in Anambra East at about 11 am, shooting continuously into the air.

The Enugu killings occurred on Saturday morning when hoodlums numbering about 15 stormed the scene roundabout in a Lexus Jeep and Toyota Tundra vehicles.

The CP also visited Nkpoko-Ichi in Oji-River, where gunmen on Friday murdered the former council chairman Gabriel Onuzulike and his brother.