

Two feared dead in Delta crash

From Elo Edremoda, Warri

AN expectant mother and an unidentified man were feared dead in a multiple auto crash in the Okuokoko section of the East-West Road.

It was learnt that the incident occurred yesterday afternoon, close to the Okuokoko Wood Market in Okpe council area of Delta State.

The Nation learnt that a grey-coloured Toyota Venza and three tricycles were involved in the crash.

Though details of the incident were sketchy, the incident reportedly led to serious traffic congestion along the highway.

A businessman in the area, who spoke to this reporter said, "we heard two persons have died now, a pregnant woman and one boy".

Delta Police spokesman, DSP Bright Edafe, promised to get back to this reporter once briefed about the incident.
