Dutsinma Local Government Area of the state around 7.30pm on Tuesday and tried to abduct some residents.

"The police operatives who were alerted of the terrorists' presence moved to the Quarters and engaged them in a gun duel," he said.

The two terrorists were gunned down in the encounter, and the police were also able to recover two AK47 rifles from the hoodlums.

"Search parties are still combing the area with a view to arresting other members of the syndicate."
