

3 One killed at Ebonyi APC campaign ground

GUNMEN at the weekend invaded an All Progressives Congress (APC) campaign rally venue in Ebonyi, killing one person.

The wife of a journalist in the state narrowly escaped death during the attack.

The incident happened at Ezzagu Ward 1 in Isielu local government area where the Ebonyi Central senatorial candidate of the party, Ken Eze visited on the campaign stump.

An indigene of the area, Mr Benjamin Nworie whose wife escaped death during the attack, said the gunmen invaded the campaign ground and opened fire on the party members.

He said the attack happened when campaign had ended and supporters were about leaving.
