THE corpse of a Police Sergeant allegedly kidnapped on Thursday evening has been discovered in a forest in Ughelli North Local Government Area.

The victim, identified as Sgt. Ifeanyi a.k.a Lion, was attached to the Eagle Net Squad and reportedly kidnapped along Aroh Road in Ughelli metropolis while returning from work.

Confirming the development yesterday, the Public Relations Officer of the Delta State Police Command said that "manhunt for the assailants is on. The DPO has mandated a tactical team and we are on their trail."

According to a senior security source from the Delta State Police Command, "his (the deceased's) phone number was tracked to one bush at Ewureni where he was found dead.

"He was shot on his neck, his hands were tied. "His corpse was taken to the Central Hospital morgue on Friday night."
