

Troops kill 'bandits' in Zamfara

TROOPS of Operation Hadarin Daji neutralised three suspected bandits in an ambush at Anka-Dan Kapani crossing in Anka Local Government Area of Zamfara, yesterday.

Director, Defence Media Operations, Maj.-Gen. Musa Danmadami, disclosed this in a statement in Abuja.

Danmadami said the troops also recovered one PKT gun with 48 rounds of 7.62mm x 54 ammunition, three AK47 rifles, three magazines with 63 rounds of 7.62mm special ammunition and three motorcycles.

"The military high command commends troops and encourages the public to avail troops with credible and timely information on terrorist, all criminal activities within their area," he said.
