Suspected armed herders yesterday killed 10 persons in Ikobi community, Apa Local Government Area of Benue State.

The incident occurred at about 7pm, when the villagers were about settling down in their homes after farm work.

Apa Local Government is in Benue South Senatorial zone, and the area has recently come under blistering attacks from suspected herdsmen.

The latest attack was said to have taken the people unawares.

Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, Kate Aneene, said she was yet to get the report.

However, an indigene of Ikobi community, Peter Omale, said the casualty figure was yet to be ascertained as many people were still in the bush running helter skater.
