Tragedy struck in Akure on Monday as an over-speeding motorist ran over a Junior Secondary School student, killing her on the spot.

An eyewitness told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) that the student was by the roadside on her way back from school when the vehicle crushed her.

“Friends of the driver, a suspected internet fraudster, who were in another vehicle, rushed him to an unknown destination as his vehicle burst into flames.

“Government needs to pay attention to the recklessness of these internet fraudsters,” the eyewitness said.

Police spokesperson in Ondo State, SP Olufunmilayo Odunlami-Omisanya, confirmed the incident and said the body of the student had been deposited in the morgue at Akure Specialist Hospital.
