

Gunmen kill two Abia vigilante operatives

Sunny Nwankwo

May 9, 2023

Gunmen have reportedly killed two yet-to-be-identified Abia local vigilante members.

The incident, The Nation gathered, occurred in Aba South local government area.

The gunmen said to be dressed in black shirts and trousers killed the two vigilante members in a gun duel.

The gunmen were said to be members of a notorious group operating within Obohia, Port Harcourt Road and its environs.

It was gathered from sources around the area that the vigilante personnel after sighting the gangsters went after them.

Attempts to confront the group by the vigilante operatives were rebuffed as the group paid no attention to the vigilante members.

Read Also: Gunmen kill three policemen at military checkpoint

Trouble however ensued when one of the vigilante members corked his gun and threatened to shoot them if they refused to stop.

It was learnt the group who felt that the vigilante members had overstepped their bounds opened fire on them.

The vigilante members reportedly engaged them in a gun duel.

It was gathered the crossfire led to the death of two vigilante operatives while some other members sustained bullet injuries.