

Woman's corpse recovered from well

From Adekunle Jimoh, Ilorin

THE Kwara State Fire Service yesterday recovered the body of a 57-year-old woman, Sikirat Jamiu, from a well in Ilorin, the state capital.

Jamiu of Ile-Agunko compound, Adeta area, was believed to have fallen into the well at Ile-Onikoko compound Adeta where she had gone to fetch water.

The Nation gathered that the incident occurred at about 6:42pm on Monday, June 19.

Spokesperson of the fire service, Hassan Adekunle, said the corpse had been handed over to her relatives.

"Firemen were able to recover the dead body from the well and handed it over to one Alfa Abdulganiyu Akuko, a family member of the deceased, in the presence of the policemen," Adekunle said.
