number AKD733FK, white JAC Gallop with registration number DTS139XA and Toyota Corolla car with registration number GWA22DD were involved in the unfortunate incident.

Kwara State Federal Roads Safety Commission (FRSC) Sector Commander, Frederick Ogidan, said that the "cause of the crash were wrongful overtaking and speed violation."

Mr Ogidan added that personnel of the command recovered a sum of N60,750 from the accident scene.

He added that the injured were taken to a private hospital in Bode-Saadu for treatment, saying that the deceased's corpses had been deposited at the University of Ilorin Teaching Hospital (UTH), Ilorin morgue.

"Motorists are advised to be cautious of the way they speed and overtake wrongfully.

"FRSC Kwara will commence another round of enforcement on speed violation and overloading from Monday the 14th of July 2023, as we cannot tolerate a situation where 10 lives are lost in a single crash," he said.
